DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Amendment No. 3 to Service and Regulatory Announcements
(Agricultural Economics) No. 105.

-----

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the United States cotton futures Act of August 11, 1916 (39 Stat. 476), as amended by the Acts of March 4, 1919 (40 Stat. 1348, 1351), May 31, 1920 (41 Stat. 725), and February 26, 1927 (Public No. 657, 69th Cong.), I, W. M. Jardine, Secretary of Agriculture, do make, prescribe, publish, and give public notice of the following amendment, which shall be in force and effect on and after February 1, 1929, to the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture under said Act as amended:

In regulation 13 strike out sections 1 and 4 and substitute therefor the following:

"Section 1. For the classification and certification of cotton pursuant to these regulations, except as otherwise hereinafter provided, whether such cotton be tenderable or not, the person requesting the classification shall pay a fee of 40 cents per bale.

"Section 4. For the review of the classification of any cotton by the board which classified such cotton in the first instance the fee shall be 30 cents per bale. For the review of the classification of any cotton by the appeal board of review examiners, Washington, D. C., where the applicant designates the appeal board of review examiners as the board to which he wishes the review referred, the fee shall be 35 cents per bale, which shall cover the review and the expense incident to forwarding and returning samples."

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington this 7th day of December, 1928.

W. M. Jardine,

Secretary.
